(b) if so, what is Government reaction thereto;

(c) what are the reasons for the slow pace of disbursement and consequently its under utilisation; and

(d) how government propose to tackle the issue of "deep-rooted structural impediments in the system of public administration/public sector units/line agencies' as commented upon by the ADB;

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M. V. CHANDRASHEKHAR MURTHY): (a) and (b) The question of utilisation of assistance has been under discussion with the multilateral agencies including Asian Development Bank for quite sometime. The Government have taken further steps to improve the utiiissation of externally aided projects. A project Monitoring Unit has also been set up in the Department of Economic Affairs to monitor the utilisation of these projects.

(c) The main reasons for inadequate utilisation are:—

(i) Delay in finalisation of contracts and procurement of goods;

(ii) Availability of counterpart funds; and

(iii) Changes in the scope of some of the projects.

(d) The external assistance is being monitored on regular basis by periodical reviews with the concerned executing agencies and Ministries of Central and State Governments. Steps have also been iniitated to streamline rationalise the procedueer so that remedial action wherever called for is taken to maximise the aid utilisation.
